

The Himalaya Drug Company

Website: <http://www.himalayawellness.com>

Himalaya has been on a mission to make wellness a part of every home for more than 8 decades. The legacy of researching nature is the foundation of Himalaya's operations. Himalaya has pioneered the use of modern science to rediscover and validate Ayurveda's secrets. Cutting-edge technology is employed to create pharmaceutical-grade Ayurvedic products. The therapeutic range includes products like Liv.52, Cystone, Bonnisan and Septilin that have become a household name in millions of homes.

With a portfolio of over 300 products, we offer consumers a complete range of "head-to-heel" herbal healthcare and personal care products.

Himalaya has offices in India, USA, Middle East, South Africa, Latvia and Singapore. These are full-fledged offices that are responsible for building the brand locally.

The Himalaya Drug Company is accredited with the following certifications:

- Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) Certificate issued from the department of AYUSH, Karnataka.
- WHO GMP certificate issued from the department of Drugs Controller General of India {DCG(I)}, Delhi.
- Good Laboratory Practices (GLP) certificate issued from Department of Science and Technology, New Delhi.
- ISO - 9001:2000 certification for quality, manufacturing.
- ISO -14001:2004 certification for environment management
- ISO – 22716 GMP for cosmetics
- ISO – 22000 for food safety

Himalaya invests a lot of time and energy in product development and ensures that products are not rushed to market. On average, it takes between 7 to 10 years to develop a product. No investment is too much when it comes to scientifically developing safe and efficacious products.

We believe that an ideal healthcare system lies in the synergy between Ayurveda and modern science. Our endeavour is to be known as the most trusted brand providing scientific herbal healthcare solutions. Loved by our customers for our ethics, values, and commitment to sustainability.

Our vision:

Bring wellness and joy to every home via herbal solutions based on science.